Pastors Corner:

Four Last Things - We live in a very busy world and our lives are full of events and activities. But we as Catholics must always remember what our goal is, eternal life with God. In the Month of November, the Church helps us to remember that life on earth is a blessing but it is passing away and we need to be prepared for our personal end and the end of the World, not with fear but with faith. We need to recall the 4 Last Things: Death, Judgement, Heaven, and Hell. In the end we will face death and judgement and enter into either one of two places in eternity: Heaven or Hell. That is why many saints, like St. Francis of Assisi, followed the words: “Momento Mori” (“Remember Death”) as Psalm 90 says, so that they could grow in wisdom. Francis even kept close to him a human skull, not for morbid reasons, but to stay humble and appreciate that every day is a gift from God to be lived in joy. We should not waste our time on selfishness, sinfulness, or sadness, but use every moment to grow in virtue, repent from sin, and to love our neighbor. For in the end the Lord will return as King. So let us be ready to enter into his Kingdom! - Fr. Timothy

Las cuatro últimas cosas - Vivimos en un mundo muy ajetreado, y nuestras vidas están llenas de actividades y preocupaciones. Pero, como católicos, siempre debemos recordar cuál es nuestra meta: la vida eterna con Dios. Durante el mes de noviembre, la Iglesia nos ayuda a recordar que la vida en la tierra es una bendición, pero es pasajera; por ello, debemos estar preparados tanto para nuestro fin personal como para el fin del mundo, no con miedo, sino con fe. Es necesario tener presentes las cuatro últimas cosas: la muerte, el juicio, el cielo y el infierno. Al final, nos enfrentaremos a la muerte y al juicio, y entraremos en uno de estos dos destinos eternos: el cielo o el infierno. Por esta razón, muchos santos —como san Francisco de Asís— siguieron el principio de «memento mori» («recuerda la muerte»), tal como sugiere el Salmo 89, para crecer en sabiduría. San Francisco incluso conservaba una calavera humana cerca de sí; no por motivos morbosos, sino para mantenerse humilde y valorar que cada día es un regalo de Dios, destinado a vivirse con alegría. No debemos desperdiciar nuestro tiempo en el egoísmo, el pecado o la tristeza; al contrario, aprovechemos cada instante para crecer en virtud, arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados y amar al prójimo. Pues, al final, el Señor regresará como Rey. ¡Estemos, pues, preparados para entrar en su Reino! — P. Timothy

St. Vincent DePaul (SVdP) Update -Case of the Month

Many of our neighbors-in-need have situations that SVdP can't solve alone. Here is an example. Mary's husband, the sole provider of income for the family, was suddenly incarcerated. Mary had been a stay-at-home mom for their three children and suddenly had to find a job - and childcare for her kids. Fortunately, she had a sister who lived nearby and could handle the after-school duties. Additionally, she was able to find a part-time job and supplement that with driving for DoorDash. However, her $1,300 per month rent was late. After talking to a friend, she called the SVdP "Hope Line" seeking help with the rent. Given the substantial amount, we (SVdP) committed to $300 and referred her to ARC, a non-profit organization that helps neighbors in Jackson County. ARC was able to commit to $500 if she could come up with the balance of $500. After 2 weeks of part-time work and DoorDash she had raised the $500 and – on the day before eviction papers were to be filed – she (and SVdP and ARC) paid her outstanding rent. Teamwork paid off. Meanwhile, husband was released and future problems should be averted.

If you would like to learn more about SVdP and how you can live your faith, check out our page on the St. Catherine Laboure – Jefferson website, or simply contact Dennis Morgan at 404-838-8504, or via email at dmmorgan@bellsouth.net.
