welcome

On July 1, 2022 we welcome Fr. Avery to St. Catherine Labouré. Father Avery was born on the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes (February 11th) in 1993. His mother , Phyllis, is a lifelong public school educator and administrator, and his father, Edward, is a retired football player and IT worker. He was baptized and raised in Sts. Peter and Paul parish in Decatur, GA, where he was an active altar server (since his first Communion!) and Junior Knight of Peter Claver. It was in serving the Mass every weekend for so many years that was the seed of his priestly vocation. He attended St. Thomas More Catholic School and St. Pius X Catholic High School. There he met Msgr. Richard Lopez, who’s holy way of celebrating Mass and joy in being a high school chaplain definitively opened his heart to the priesthood. Following graduation, he went to Virginia Tech to study political science and diplomacy with the goal of becoming an officer in the US Navy. During his first semester, he had a powerful experience in Adoration that solidified his decision to enter the seminary. He began seminary formation in 2012 at age 19, attending the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, OH for college seminary. After earning his BA in philosophy and humanities, he was sent by Archbishop Wilton Gregory to the Pontifical North American College in Rome, Italy, where he earned a pontifical master’s degree in theology and began licentiate studies in seminary formation at the Pontifical Gregorian University. He was ordained a deacon in February 2021 and assigned as chaplain of Blessed Trinity Catholic High School in Roswell. Upon ordination to the priesthood, he is (proudly) the youngest priest in the Archdiocese!

He is an avid gym rat, golfer, gardener, and loves any and all musical instruments and signing. But most of all, he loves his vocation as a priest and can’t wait to get to know and serve all of you!
