From the Pastor: The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary - The goal of the Christian life is to go to Heaven and be fully united to God through Jesus Christ, where we all are promised a resurrected body and soul. The Church teaches that Mary is the first to follow her Son, Jesus, into Heaven to share this full unity. This happened at the end of her life on earth when God assumed her body and soul into Heaven. Since Mary was fully united to Christ's body and soul on earth, she now enjoys this complete unity with him in Heaven. The Assumption is a holy day of obligation and all Catholics are obligated to attend Mass. Mass times: Thursday August 14 at 6 PM (Spanish). Friday August 15 at 12 Noon (no 10 AM Mass) and 6 PM (English).

Attention: Fr. Timothy invites everyone to take advantage of confession times in the parish and loves offering the sacrament of Reconciliation to relieve the burden of sin from the faithful. It is inspiring to see so many who come to receive the mercy of Jesus. In order to be ready for mass, Fr. Tim will end confessions 5 minutes before mass time. For those who are still waiting in line he will offer to hear them after mass. Also, Fr. Tim will make himself available for confession 30 minutes before the weekday masses. Thank you for your faithfulness and understanding.
