The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) - The U.S. Bishops elected a new president, Archbishop Paul Coakley of Oklahoma City. They offered a Special Message to the faithful: “Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity. Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation’s immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together. We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks. The Church’s concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord’s command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34). We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform. May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.” (Visit USCCB.org for complete statement.)

Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB) - Los obispos estadounidenses eligieron un nuevo presidente, el arzobispo Paul Coakley de Oklahoma City. Ofrecieron un Mensaje Especial a los fieles: “A pesar de los obstáculos y prejuicios, generaciones de inmigrantes han contribuido enormemente al bienestar de nuestra nación. Como obispos católicos, amamos a nuestro país y oramos por su paz y prosperidad. Por esta misma razón, nos sentimos compelidos ahora, en este contexto, a alzar la voz en defensa de la dignidad humana, don de Dios. La doctrina católica exhorta a las naciones a reconocer la dignidad fundamental de todas las personas, incluyendo a los inmigrantes. Los obispos abogamos por una reforma significativa de las leyes y procedimientos de inmigración de nuestra nación. La dignidad humana y la seguridad nacional no están reñidas. Ambas son posibles si las personas de buena voluntad colaboran. Reconocemos que las naciones tienen la responsabilidad de regular sus fronteras y establecer un sistema de inmigración justo y ordenado por el bien común. Sin estos procesos, los inmigrantes se enfrentan al riesgo de ser víctimas de trata y otras formas de explotación. Las vías seguras y legales sirven como antidoto contra tales riesgos. La preocupación de la Iglesia por el prójimo y nuestra preocupación aquí por los inmigrantes responde al mandato del Señor de amar como El nos ha amado (Juan 13:34). Nos oponemos a la inmigración indiscriminada masiva.” Deportación de personas. Oramos por el fin del discurso deshumanizante y la violencia, ya sea contra los inmigrantes o contra las fuerzas del orden. Oramos para que el Señor guíe a los líderes de nuestra nación y agradecemos las oportunidades pasadas y presentes de dialogar con funcionarios públicos y electos. En este diálogo, seguiremos abogando por una reforma migratoria significativa. Que el manto de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe nos envuelva a todos con su cuidado maternal y amoroso y nos acerque cada vez más al corazón de Cristo. (Visite USCCB.org para leer la declaración completa).
