From The Pastor - St. Paul says to the Corinthians, “I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose” (1 Corinthians 1:10). This call of St. Paul to unity is only possible through our Baptism. This is a supernatural unity through grace into the One Body of Jesus Christ. It is not our nationality, race, or common interests or political beliefs that unite us but our FAITH in Jesus Christ who calls us to repent and believe in the Gospel. As we see the spirit of division growing in our world, we must avoid allowing it to divide our parish. I invite all our parishioners to renew your Faith so that we think like Christ, serve his purpose of saving souls, and realize we are united as one family of God. - Fr. Timothy

Pray for Vocations! In the Gospel Jesus invites the first disciples to follow him. Jesus continues to call young men to follow him in the priesthood. It takes a man to follow God in such a radical way and to sacrifice his life to live like Jesus Christ. No man is worthy, no man is capable. But if Jesus calls you to follow him, he will give you the grace to make it possible. For more information on the priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony visit: www.CalledByChrist.com

Del Párroco - San Pablo dice a los Corintios: «Les ruego, hermanos, en el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que todos estén de acuerdo en lo que dicen, y que no haya divisiones entre ustedes, sino que estén unidos en un mismo sentir y en un mismo propósito» (1 Corintios 1:10). Este llamado de San Pablo a la unidad solo es posible a través de nuestro Bautismo. Se trata de una unidad sobrenatural por la gracia, en el único Cuerpo de Jesucristo. No es nuestra nacionalidad, raza, intereses comunes o creencias políticas lo que nos une, sino nuestra FE en Jesucristo, quien nos llama al arrepentimiento y a creer en el Evangelio. Al ver que el espíritu de división crece en nuestro mundo, debemos evitar que divida nuestra parroquia. Invito a todos nuestros feligreses a renovar su fe para que pensemos como Cristo, sirvamos a su propósito de salvar almas y comprendamos que estamos unidos como una sola familia de Dios. - Padre Timothy

¡Oremos por las vocaciones! En el Evangelio, Jesús invita a los primeros discípulos a seguirlo. Jesús continúa llamando a jóvenes a seguirlo en el sacerdocio. Se necesita un hombre para seguir a Dios de una manera tan radical y sacrificar su vida para vivir como Jesucristo. Ningún hombre es digno, ningún hombre es capaz. Pero si Jesús te llama a seguirlo, te dará la gracia para que sea posible. Para más información sobre el sacerdocio, la vida consagrada o el santo matrimonio, visite: www.CalledByChrist.com
