Pastor's Corner: Divine Mercy - The Second Sunday of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday as promoted by Pope St. John Paul II. It is not a new message since the Church has always taught that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is a message of Mercy for the salvation of the world. Mercy is God's form of love to the human race because we are all sinners in need of salvation. But many have forgotten about God's merciful love in our time. So in order to reawaken this essential truth, Jesus appeared to a Polish nun, Sr. Faustina, in a private revelation in the 1930s and asked her to have an image of him painted that shows two rays coming from his heart which symbolize the Sacraments of Mercy (Baptism and Eucharist), and under his feet the words "Jesus I Trust In You." He asked her to promote the Divine Mercy Chaplet to mediate on his sorrowful Passion, and to have people remember the 3 PM Hour of Mercy when he died on the Cross for sinners. He also asked for a Feast of Mercy on the 2nd Sunday of Easter so that those who would confess their sins and receive Holy Communion would receive an extraordinary grace of complete remission of sins and removal of all temporal punishment in Purgatory. Ultimately, Jesus wants us to share his mercy with others in acts of mercy. You can read the story and the message of Divine Mercy in the Diary of Sr. Faustina.

Divina Misericordia — El Segundo Domingo de Pascua también se denomina Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, tal como fue promovido por el Papa San Juan Pablo II. No se trata de un mensaje nuevo, puesto que la Iglesia siempre ha enseñado que el Evangelio de Jesucristo es un mensaje de misericordia para la salvación del mundo. La misericordia es la forma en que Dios manifiesta su amor a la humanidad, dado que todos somos pecadores necesitados de salvación. Sin embargo, en nuestros tiempos, muchos han olvidado el amor misericordioso de Dios. Por ello, con el fin de reavivar esta verdad esencial, Jesús se apareció a una religiosa polaca —Sor Faustina— en una revelación privada durante la década de 1930, y le pidió que hiciera pintar una imagen suya en la que se mostraran dos rayos emanando de su corazón —los cuales simbolizan los Sacramentos de la Misericordia (el Bautismo y la Eucaristía)— y, bajo sus pies, las palabras: «Jesús, en ti confío». Le pidió, asimismo, que promoviera la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia para meditar en su dolorosa Pasión, y que recordara a las personas la «Hora de la Misericordia» —las tres de la tarde—, momento en que Él murió en la Cruz por los pecadores. También solicitó el establecimiento de una Fiesta de la Misericordia para el Segundo Domingo de Pascua, a fin de que aquellos que confesaran sus pecados y recibieran la Sagrada Comunión obtuvieran una gracia extraordinaria: la remisión total de sus pecados y la cancelación de toda pena temporal en el Purgatorio. En última instancia, Jesús desea que compartamos su misericordia con los demás mediante actos de misericordia. Puede leer la historia y el mensaje de la Divina Misericordia en el Diario de Sor Faustina.
